

Betsy Longstreth, Vice Chair
Former Executive Director,
Vincera Foundation

Betsy Longstreth has been involved in the nonprofit sector at the international and local level in the areas of education, health, and community outreach. She began this work first as a member of the Peace Corps working in rural Colombia. Subsequently she held the position of Assistant to the President of Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania working closely with the Board of Directors and Administration in developing new clinical programs and outreach. Moving to Panama with her husband for two years, she worked in community development with local organizations providing education and family planning services to Panama City's urban underserved.

Upon returning to the United States, she founded Education International, an organization founded to provide educational, tutoring, and home stay opportunities for Latin American middle and high school students who were preparing for college in the US. Betsy then went on to Chestnut Hill Academy to teach Latin and Spanish at the middle and high school levels and then served as its Director of Institutional Advancement until 2012. After 25 years at CHA, Betsy served as the founding Executive Director of Vincera Foundation, the non-profit, philanthropic arm of the Institute, dedicated to improving the health of the community through research, education and youth development.

She currently serves on the Boards of the Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia and as vice chair of Philadelphia Youth Sports Collaborative. Formerly, she served as Chair of Edcamp Foundation and on the Boards of Chestnut Hill Academy, the Independent Seaport Museum, and the Chestnut Hill Hospital. Ms. Longstreth received her B.A. from Bryn Mawr College.
