

Tim Massaquoi

Youth Emergency Service Director,
Youth Service, Inc.

Tim Massaquoi is a retired NFL player with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins and Buffalo Bills. Mr. Massaquoi is currently the founding Social Worker at KIPP High School in Camden, NJ. He is a licensed professional counselor in Pennsylvania and owns a private therapy practice Peace In Mind LLC. Tim Massaquoi uses a diverse set of therapeutic approaches such as Person-Centered Therapy, Cognitive-behavior therapy, Dialectical Behavior-Therapy, all with the goal of supporting clients to actualize their whole selves. For the past 5 years Mr. Massaquoi has been the director at Youth Emergency Service a homeless youth shelter in Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. Massaquoi has worked in the child- welfare and social service industry for over 10 years. Providing supportive services to youth who experience homelessness and case management. Mr. Massaquoi received his MA in Counseling Psychology from Eastern University and his undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan. Mr. Massaquoi serves as a board member of Philadelphia Youth Sports Collaborative as well as a board member of the Youth Collaborative. Mr. Massaquoi is also the Pennsylvania regional director of Legacy Football.

Philadelphia
Youth Sports Collaborative

1501 Cherry Street
Philadelphia, PA 19102
267.582.9466
pysc.org
